

STAFF VACANCY

Brescia University College (www.brescia.uwo.ca), a Catholic university affiliated with Western University, is Canada's premier women's university providing a rich educational experience for approximately 1,100 students. Brescia also operates a Girls LEAD program that consists of six two-week day camp sessions for girls between the ages of 7-14 (grades three to eight); a residential camp for female international high school students; as well as a day camp in Barbados. Brescia is currently seeking energetic and skilled individuals to fill positions as:

- Girls LEAD Assistant Camp Coordinator (Junior-Senior Camps)
- Girls LEAD Assistant Camp Coordinator (Intermediate-International Camps)
- Girls LEAD Assistant Camp Coordinator (Barbados Camp)

The Girls LEAD program consists of approximately six two-week day camp sessions for girls between the ages of 7-14 and in elementary grades three to eight (referred to as the Junior, Intermediate and Senior Camps). The Girls LEAD program also incorporates a residential camp for female international high school students (referred to as the International Camp) as well as a day camp in Barbados.

Reporting to the Girls LEAD Program Coordinator and working within the Brescia Student Affairs Team, the three Girls LEAD Assistant Camp Coordinators (i.e. Intermediate-International Assistant Camp Coordinator, Junior-Senior Assistant Camp Coordinator and Barbados Assistant Camp Coordinator) have distinct job titles based on the specific camp sessions they are responsible for.

These positions require a commitment to Brescia's mission and core values that encourage women's learning styles, confidence and leadership skills, experiential education, collaborative and participative community building, raising social awareness and promoting social change. The Assistant Camp Coordinators will lead the Girls LEAD camp Staff to ensure that the program goals are met. They will be actively involved in assisting with development of camp counselor orientation and training, the camp curriculum, camp programming, camp logistics, nutrition, staff relations, and volunteer coordination. The Assistant Camp Coordinators will ideally have experience working with youth from culturally diverse socioeconomic backgrounds in both educational and recreational settings, and have a strong ability to deal with behavior management issues (classroom-related and other). They will have outstanding leadership, organizational and communication skills (both written and verbal), as well as proven creativity when dealing with diverse situations. Please refer to the specific job descriptions for each role for an outline for further duties and responsibilities.

Please submit a letter of application and resume by Sunday March 2nd, 2014 to:
