Course Description

What social forces are influential in designing the law? To what extent does the law reflect and reinforce inequalities of “race”, gender, class, sexuality, age and ability? To what extent can the law be utilized to bring about social change? How are law and politics related?

This seminar is a critical investigation of the law-society relationship. Specifically in relation to social inequality, law is analyzed in a way that highlights its dual, contradictory nature. That is, in theory, law offers the promise of equality. However, in practice, law often reinforces and perpetuates social inequality. More concretely, this course explores the origins and the operation of law, as well as the possibility for change and reform through law by investigating the following kinds of topics: the criminalization of poverty, First Nations people and the law, immigration law, law and policing, gender bias in the law, the criminalization of LGBTQ people in Canada, and environmental crimes and green criminology.

Prerequisites

Sociology 1020 or 1021E and enrolment in 3rd or 4th year Sociology.

Policy Statement Regarding Essay Courses

Sociology 3360F is designated as an essay course. According to Western University's regulations for essay courses, all half courses, designated at the 100 level or above, must include written assignments (excluding examinations) totalling at least 2500 words. Additionally, according to this regulation, students are required to demonstrate competence in essay writing in order to pass the course.

Required Course Materials

Comack, Elizabeth. (Ed.) Locating Law: Race, Class, Gender, Sexuality Connections 3RD ed. Halifax: Fernwood Publishing, 2014.

Perry, Barbara. (Ed.) Diversity, Crime and Justice in Canada. (2nd Ed.)

Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate understanding of theories related to law and social inequality
2. Analyze the ways in which law reflects and reinforces inequalities of “race”, gender, class, age, sexuality and ability.
3. Illustrate ways in which the law may be utilized to bring about social change
4. Collaborate with classmates to design and deliver a seminar that bridges classroom content with an “out of classroom” experience.

Brescia Competencies

The Brescia Competencies are the building blocks of your Brescia experience. They help you to think critically and participate actively in society – attributes you will apply throughout your entire life. Regardless of what degree you choose, these skills, values, and abilities prepare you to lead with wisdom, justice, and compassion in a changing world. Throughout this course, students will work towards developing the following Brescia Competencies:

Communication: includes the articulation of one’s ideas, developing informative and persuasive arguments in all forms of communication, understanding the communication context. Students will also develop interpersonal communication skills including working with others in groups, sharing opinions, resolving conflicts, offering ideas, listening to others, asking questions, and demonstrating effective nonverbal behaviours.

Critical Thinking: the ability to engage in thinking characterized by the rational, informed, independent, and open-minded exploration of issues, ideas, and events before accepting or formulating a conclusion.

Inquiry and Analysis: the ability to reach informed decisions by breaking down complex issues, exploring evidence, and describing relationships among persons, things, or events.

Problem Solving: the ability to create and execute a strategy to answer a question or achieve a goal. Includes being able to anticipate the consequence of a potential solution, select a strategy among several alternatives, and decide when an acceptable outcome has been reached.

Self Awareness and Development: the ability to draw meaning, knowledge and value from honest and fair reflection and self-evaluation. Students are able to recognize their values and their impact on other and make a commitment to personal growth.

Social Awareness and Engagement: the ability “to understand and respond to the needs of others” (Daniel Goleman). To do so, students need to develop an understanding of the interrelationship between individual and society. They come to see how their actions influence, and are influenced by, other people, social institutions, and social structure. They appreciate the diverse standpoints and cultural experiences of others and attempt to see things from different perspectives. Socially aware and engaged students demonstrate knowledge of contemporary social problems and propose solutions for dealing with these issues. They have the ability to reflect on the impact they have on others. They are able to work with a diverse group of people in intercultural contexts to develop and implement social justice initiatives and enact positive social change.

Valuing: the ability to make decisions or choose actions based on the consistent application of moral principles and ethical codes. Students must also be able to understand the ideas informing one’s beliefs and be accountable for their actions.

Teaching Methodology and Expectations of Students

This course uses a variety of instructional approaches including lectures, guest presentations, group activities, small group discussions, seminar presentations and experiential learning opportunities.

Regarding class specific expectations, please note the following:

Submission of Assignments

All assignment should be submitted in class. Please do not submit assignments under my office door. All due dates are firm and subject to a late penalty, except when the professor recognizes that there are legitimate and documented exceptional circumstances (e.g. illness, death in the family). For each day the assignment is late, the student will lose $\frac{1}{2}$ (.5) of a mark (.5% of the final course grade). Except for exceptional circumstances such as those noted above, assignments submitted 7 days or more past the due date will not be accepted.

Cell Phones and Computers

Technology has become an integral part of all our lives. However, out of respect for your colleagues and the instructor, please refrain from using cell phones during class time. Ensure that they have been turned off before entering class. Similarly, computers, tablets, and/or iPads are to be used for note-taking and class related activities only. There will be ample time during class breaks to check your messages! Thank you for your cooperation!

Copyright and Intellectual Property

PowerPoint lecture slides and notes, lists of readings, in-class activities, assignment guidelines, and other components of the course materials are typically the intellectual property of the instructor. Unauthorized reproduction through audio-recording, video-recording, photographing, sharing on social media, or posting on course-sharing websites is an infringement of copyright and is prohibited. Such action may be considered a Code of Conduct violation and lead to sanctions.

Academic Accommodation

For course components worth 10% or more of the total course grade, please see the Academic Policies and Regulations section at the end of this course outline or consult the Academic Calendar.

For course components worth less than 10% of the total course grade, documentation is not required. Whenever possible students should provide notification in advance of due dates or absence. If advance notification is not possible, the course instructor should be contacted within two business days.

Detailed Course Outline

Students, please note that the following course outline is subject to revision. That is, throughout the term, circumstances may arise that will alter the ordering of the topics, the pace at which we move through the material and so on. It is your responsibility to do all required readings, to attend class and to participate in the seminar presentations of your colleagues. If, for whatever reason, you are unable to attend class, please consult your colleagues in order to catch up on any administrative details, or course content that you may have missed.

Detailed Assignment Instructions:

- 1) “Make a Difference” Seminar Presentation (35%):
25% – Seminar Grade
10% - 2 page summary of key points from the seminar

A hard copy of your summary should be submitted in class on the day of your presentation; an electronic copy should be sent to me for posting on OWL the evening before your presentation.

This assignment is to be done in groups of 3. The seminar should last approximately 40-45 minutes (this time frame includes any discussion or class participation in the seminar). Each group member will receive the same grade on both parts of this assignment.*

As the Perry (2016) text notes: “the first step towards actively engaging in an issue in order to create change is educating yourself on the nature of the problem” (p.15). We know that educating ourselves can happen both in and outside of the classroom. In this spirit, this assignment challenges you to step outside of your comfort zone, leave the classroom, enter the community and do something- make a difference!

To begin, choose some aspect of law and social inequality— that has sparked your interest from the weekly themes or readings, about which you would like to become better informed. Decide in your groups how you are going to do this. The goal of your seminar presentation will be twofold:

- To share this experience with the class in order to highlight how the experience has enhanced your understanding of some aspect of the material we are studying in class; and
- To illustrate how you have attempted, in some small way, to challenge an injustice or create positive change.

Every chapter of the Perry text has a “Making a Difference” section to give you some ideas of what you might do. Here are just a few examples:

- For one week, every day, challenge those around you who make racist, sexist, homophobic jokes (p.39).
- Spend a week carefully examining representations of a marginalized community by a specific media source. Consider writing a letter to the editor summarizing your findings (p.58).
- Spend a few days in court following a specific case- what did this experience teach you?
- Spend some time reading through the “Missing & Murdered Aboriginal Women in Canada” Facebook Page. Reflect on the stories. Comment positively on the page. Send a letter to your MP or the PM expressing your concern with the PM’s indifference to the missing and murdered indigenous women and their families and communities. (p. 95).
- Explore the city of London and take photos (not of people) that reflect some aspect of law and social inequality (e.g., used needles in parks/downtown, substandard housing, graffiti, things symbolic of HIV/AIDS, violence against women, actions negatively impacting the environment). What did your travels around the city teach you? How can these photographs be used to raise awareness about the issue in question?
- Begin to build bridges between communities. Identify a public event led by a community group you do not regularly interact with. Invite 2 or 3 friends to attend the event with you. What did you learn about justice and social inclusion through your experience and interactions with people from diverse communities (p.206).
- Visit a community agency that serves a marginalized population in the city. What did you learn about oppression from this visit? How is the agency striving to support the population in question? Go a step further- make a difference! Volunteer your time to support an event associated with the agency. Or, volunteer your time at the agency for 5-10 hours, perhaps to assist with a particular project. What did you learn? Share your experience with the class. (p.230).

These are just a few examples of ways that you might make a difference!
Please clear your topic with me in advance.

I encourage you to involve your classmates in your seminar presentation. This may be through discussion, an activity, or a class exercise. Finally, be as creative as you wish in bringing the topic “to life” for me and your classmates!

2. Critical Essays (35%):

Due: Tuesday February 12, 2020
7 double-spaced, TYPED pages and properly referenced.

Your essay should include at least 2 sources from the required class readings and 5 additional scholarly references, beyond the required course texts.

 2 COPIES OF THE ESSAY SHOULD BE SUBMITTED– ONE ELECTRONIC COPY THROUGH THE OWL COURSE PAGE and ONE HARD COPY DURING CLASS TIME.

Consistent with the theme of this course, your essay should explore some dimension of inequality in relation to law. While I do encourage you to clear your topic with me in advance, you have a great deal of latitude to pursue a topic that is of interest to you. For those of you who are less certain about a topic, you might use the following suggestions as a guide.

Select a particular case study in relation to one of the areas listed below:

- Policing (e.g., here you might like look at a specific case of racial profiling)
- Immigration (e.g., how have the events of September 11th shaped Canadian immigration? E.g., the Maher Arar Case)
- First Nations People (e.g., Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Donald Marshall, Helen Betty Osborne)
- Miscarriages of justice– e.g., the case of Steven Truscott
- Violence against women
- Homophobia and hate crimes
- Treatment of offenders within prison (e.g., Ashley Smith Inquest)
- The challenges associated with criminal insanity as a defence (e.g., the case of Luka Magnotta)
- Cyber-bullying (e.g., Rehtaeh Parsons, Amanda Todd)
- Crimes Against the Elderly- (e.g., Elizabeth Wettlaufer case)
- Environmental Crimes/Green Criminology

Through an analysis of the case study, critically investigate the effectiveness of the law in relation to your chosen issue. Does the case study suggest that the law promotes justice and fairness for all? Or alternatively, does the case study provide evidence of how the law, in practice, perpetuates social inequality?

3. Final Exam (30%)

This exam will be written during the final examination period in April. The format of the exam will be discussed later in the term.

2019-20 BRESCIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ACADEMIC POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

1. POLICY REGARDING ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

The complete policy regarding Accommodation for Illness - Undergraduate Students can be found at http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_12.

Students who have long-term or chronic medical conditions which may impede their ability to complete academic responsibilities should seek Academic Accommodation through Student Accessibility Services http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?PolicyCategoryID=1&Command=showCategory&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_10.

Personal commitments (e.g., vacation flight bookings, work schedule) which conflict with a scheduled test, exam or course requirement are not grounds for academic accommodation.

Students who experience an illness or extenuating circumstance sufficiently severe to temporarily render them unable to meet academic requirements may submit a request for academic consideration through the following routes:

1. Submitting a Self-Reported Absence form provided that the conditions for submission are met;
2. For medical absences, submitting a Student Medical Certificate (SMC) signed by a licensed medical or mental health practitioner;
3. For non-medical absences, submitting appropriate documentation (e.g., obituary, police report, accident report, court order, etc.) to their Academic Advisor. Students are encouraged to contact their Academic Advisor to clarify what documentation is acceptable.

Requests for Academic Consideration Using the Self-Reported Absence Portal

Students who experience an unexpected illness or injury or an extenuating circumstance of 48 hours or less that is sufficiently severe to render them unable to meet academic requirements should self-declare using the online Self-Reported Absence portal. This option should be used in situations where the student expects to resume academic responsibilities within 48 hours. Note that the excused absence includes all courses and academic requirements within the up to 48 hours, it is not intended to provide an excused absence from a single course while students fulfill their academic responsibilities in other courses during that time.

The following conditions are in place for self-reporting of medical or extenuating circumstances:

1. Students will be allowed a maximum of two self-reported absences between September and April and one self-reported absence between May and August;
2. The duration of the absence will be for a maximum of 48 hours from the time the Self-Reported Absence form is completed through the online portal, or from 8:30 am the following morning if the form is submitted after 4:30 pm;
3. The excused absence will terminate prior to the end of the 48 hour period if the student undertakes significant academic responsibilities (writes a test, submits a paper) during that time;
4. Self-reported absences will not be allowed for scheduled final examinations; midterm examinations scheduled during the December examination period; or for final lab examinations scheduled during the final week of term;
5. Self-report absences may not be used for assessments worth more than 30% of any course;
6. Any absences in excess of 48 hours will require students to present a Student Medical Certificate (SMC), or appropriate documentation;

7. Students must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by the Self-Reported Absence form to clarify how they will fulfil the academic expectations they may have missed during the absence.

Request for Academic Consideration for a Medical Absence

When a student requests academic accommodation (e.g., extension of a deadline, a makeup exam) for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course, it is the responsibility of the student to provide acceptable documentation to support a medical or compassionate claim. All such requests for academic accommodation must be made through an Academic Advisor and include supporting documentation.

Academic accommodation for illness will be granted only if the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete their academic responsibilities. Minor ailments typically treated by over-the-counter medications will not normally be accommodated.

The following conditions apply for students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds:

1. Students must submit their Student Medical Certificate (SMC) along with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested no later than two business days after the date specified for resuming responsibilities. An SMC can be downloaded from http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf;
2. In cases where there might be an extended absence or serious issue, students should submit their documentation promptly and consult their Academic Advisor for advice during their recovery period;
3. Whenever possible, students who require academic accommodation should provide notification and documentation in advance of due dates, scheduled tests or examinations, and other academic requirements;
4. Students must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by the SMC to clarify how they will fulfil the academic expectations they may have missed during the absence;
5. Appropriate academic accommodation will be determined by the Dean's Office/Academic Advisor in consultation with the course instructor(s). Academic accommodation may include extension of deadlines, waiver of attendance requirements, arranging Special Exams (make-ups), re-weighting course requirements, or granting late withdrawal without academic penalty.

The full policy on requesting accommodation due to illness can be viewed at:
http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_12

2. ACADEMIC CONCERNs

If you feel that you have a medical or personal challenge that is interfering with your work, contact your instructor and Academic Advisor as soon as possible. Problems may then be documented and possible arrangements to assist you can be discussed at the time of occurrence rather than on a retroactive basis. Retroactive requests for academic accommodation on medical or compassionate grounds are not normally considered.

If you think that you are too far behind to catch up or that your work load is not manageable, you should consult your Academic Advisor. If you consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses, this must be done by the appropriate deadlines; please refer to the Registrar's website, <http://brescia.uwo.ca/academics/registrar-services/> or the list of official sessional dates in the Academic Calendar (<http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/SessionalDates.cfm?SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=>).

You should consult with the course instructor and the Academic Advisor who can help you consider alternatives to dropping one or more courses. Note that dropping a course may affect OSAP eligibility and/or Entrance Scholarship eligibility.

3. ABSENCES

Short Absences: If you miss a class due to a minor illness or other problems, check your course outline for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or assignment. Cover any readings and arrange to borrow notes from a classmate. Contact the course instructor if you have any questions.

Extended Absences: If you have an extended absence, you should contact the course instructor and an Academic Advisor. Your course instructor and Academic Advisor can discuss ways for you to catch up on missed work, and arrange academic accommodations if appropriate and warranted.

It is important to note that the Academic Dean may refuse permission to write the final examination in a course if the student has failed to maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the year or for too frequent absence from the class or laboratory

(http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=5&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#SubHeading_68).

4. SCHOLASTIC OFFENCES

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence at:

http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_20.

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offences. Note that such offences include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. Students are advised to consult the section on Scholastic Discipline for Undergraduate Students in the Academic Calendar.

If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate or not, consult your instructor, the Academic Dean's Office, or the Registrar. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" is not accepted as an excuse.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offence (including plagiarism) include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence.

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (<http://www.turnitin.com>).

Computer-marked Tests/exams:

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating. Software currently in use to score computer-marked multiple-choice tests and exams performs a similarity review as part of standard exam analysis.

5. PROCEDURES FOR APPEALING ACADEMIC EVALUATIONS

All appeals of a grade must be directed first to the course instructor. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal is to be sent to the School Chair. If the response of the Chair is considered unsatisfactory to the student, they may then submit a written appeal to the Office of the Dean. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the Dean, they may appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic (SRBA), if there are sufficient grounds for the appeal and if the matter falls within the jurisdiction of the SRBA. For information on academic appeals consult your Academic Advisor or see the Student Academic Appeals – Undergraduate in the Academic Calendar

http://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_14.

Note that final course marks are not official until the Academic Dean has reviewed and signed the final grade report for the course. If course marks deviate from acceptable and appropriate standards, the Academic Dean may require grades to be adjusted to align them with accepted grading practices.

6. PREREQUISITES

Unless you have either the prerequisites for a course or written special permission from the Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from the course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisite(s).

7. SUPPORT

Support Services

The Brescia University College Registrar's website, with a link to Academic Advisors, is at <http://brescia.uwo.ca/academics/registrar-services/>. Students can access supports through Brescia's Student Life Centre (<http://brescia.uwo.ca/life/student-life/>) and Learning Skills Services at Western (<https://www.uwo.ca/sdc/learning/>)

Mental Health and Wellness

Students may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to your learning, such as increased anxiety, feeling overwhelmed, feeling down or lost, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. Services are available to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. You can obtain information about how to obtain help for yourself or others through Mental Health & Wellness at Brescia (<http://brescia.uwo.ca/life/mental-health-wellness/>) and Health and Wellness at Western, http://uwo.ca/health/mental_wellbeing/index.html.

Sexual Violence

All members of the Brescia University College community have a right to work and study in an environment that is free from any form of sexual violence. Brescia University College recognizes that the prevention of, and response to, Sexual Violence is of particular importance in the university environment. Sexual Violence is strictly prohibited and unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Brescia is committed to preventing Sexual Violence and creating a safe space for anyone in the Brescia community who has experienced Sexual Violence.

If you or someone you know has experienced any form of Sexual Violence, you may access resources at <http://brescia.uwo.ca/life/sexual-violence/>.
