In the event of a COVID-19 resurgence during the course that necessitates the course moving away from in-person delivery, course content may be delivered online either synchronously (i.e., at the times indicated in the timetable) or asynchronously (e.g., posted on OWL for students to view at their convenience). There may also be changes to any remaining assessments at the discretion of the course instructor. In the event of a COVID-19 resurgence, detailed information about the impact on this course will be communicated by the Office of the Provost and by the course instructor.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has”. (Margaret Mead)

This first year course will appeal to those who are interested in becoming active, socially informed citizens. Specifically, students will be introduced to the interdisciplinary study of community and asset-based community development through service-learning. Emphasis will be placed on how diversity impacts on community, as well as how to become diversity-competent. By connecting with individuals beyond our campus, students will apply what they are learning in the classroom to real world settings. With the goal of becoming engaged citizens capable of contributing to community building, students will participate in two community experiences. Through a combination of classroom and experiential learning, we will learn about how our diverse, individual identities contribute to the communities in which we live.

Note: Sociology 1050A is strongly recommended for further coursework in Community Development and admission into a Community Development Module. Sociology 1050A does not serve as a prerequisite for other Sociology courses and may not be used to fulfill the requirements for entry into the Sociology modules.

DETAILED BREAKDOWN OF ASSIGNMENTS :

1. Participation

Worth: 10%

Date: Throughout the term

Students are encouraged to attend class and to participate in class discussions.

2. Community Experience Journal

Worth: 20%

Length: 2-3 pages, typed, double spaced, and properly referenced.

You will be required to submit a journal assignment based on your service at the International Day of the Girl Event. The “Community Experience” Journal will be submitted through OWL on October 19, 2022.

Students will journal about this experience, recording their observations and reactions. While on one level journaling is very personal and subjective, there is a more “structured” component to this assignment. Specifically, students’ observations will also be considered more reflectively using concepts from their coursework and/or the literature on community development and diversity.

Each journal entry should have a three-part format: Describe, Reflect and Apply. At the first level, DESCRIBE what you heard, saw and did during your community experience. Level two requires that you REFLECT upon your reactions to what you heard, saw and did. For example, think about and describe your mental and emotional reactions to your community-service learning experience. Was it meaningful to you? What is your opinion of the experience of collaborating with the person or people you were connected with prior to and during the experience?

The third level, APPLY, is the most challenging. During the application portion of your journal entry, explain how your community experience relates to concepts, ideas and theories associated with our course materials and lectures on service-learning, diversity and/or community development. The purpose of the “apply” portion of your journal entry is to allow what you are learning in the classroom to facilitate your learning in the community, and to allow your community experience to enrich your academic learning. In the apply section, I will expect to see a minimum of 3 concepts used. Some of you will choose to include more. Remember that the effectiveness of your apply section depends not only on the number of concepts included. It is also dependent on how well you explain and relate the chosen concepts to your experiences.

3. Midterm Exam

Worth: 20%

Date: October 26th, 2022

The test will cover all readings, lectures, videos and class discussions up to and including the material covered on October 19th. The midterm will include true and false, multiple choice questions and short answer questions.

3. “Pay It Forward” Group Assignment

Worth: 20% --Evaluation by Professor

Presentation Date: November 30th or December 7th

What is “Pay it forward”? Responding to a kindness you have received by being kind to someone else. For example, “I will take the support I have had and try to pay it forward whenever I can”.

The Purpose of this Assignment: To help you better understand the concept of “the abundant community” through your “pay it forward” community service experience. According to McKnight and Block (2012: 83-84)

Gifts, association, and hospitality create the conditions or rules for what we call the capacities of a competent community. Capacities reside in individuals and can be nurtured to exist in the collective. They are core elements that need to be visible and manifest to create an abundant community....The capacities of an abundant community are kindness, generosity, cooperation, forgiveness, and acceptance of fallibility and mystery... An abundant community is one that values our capacities and assumes that they already reside within us... [An abundant community] takes what emerges and lets it become an asset for us all.

Specific Assignment Instructions:

- 1) Read the required text The Abundant Community.
- 2) Select, plan and put into action your “pay it forward” activity.
- 3) When choosing an activity, remember that it is designed to get you engaged in action that shifts the focus away from yourself and contributes to a community. You will be placed in teams and asked to identify a community that is of interest to all members of your team: your neighborhood, your dorm, school community, workplace, a hospital to name just a few possibilities.

The activity will be associated with doing something to strengthen or assist your chosen community. It is best if you build on the strengths and connections of the members of your group. For example, you may hold an event to encourage people in your neighborhood to get to know each other or you may identify students in your dorm who need assistance with something. You could develop educational materials to raise awareness about an issue, host an event for an organization, mentor through video conference platforms such as Zoom, or conduct wellness checks over the phone.

4) Connect your “pay it forward” activity to the themes presented in the Abundant Community text. Use the following questions to guide your work:

a. What is the central message you have taken from reading The Abundant Community?

b. Identify at least 2 key ideas associated with the abundant community and relate these to your “pay it forward” activity. Specifically, how does your “pay it forward” activity contribute to the movement towards an abundant community?

5) Share your “pay it forward” service experience and analysis with the class in the form of a PowerPoint or poster presentation.

4. Final Exam

Worth: 35%

Date: To be scheduled during the December Exam period.

The test will cover all readings, lectures, videos and class discussions. The final exam will include true and false, multiple-choice questions and short answer questions.

COURSE SPECIFIC GUIDELINES:

1. OWL Website

- The course outline, slides from class and student grades will be available on this course’s OWL website.

2. Submission of Assignments

- All assignments should be submitted through this course’s OWL website. Assignment due dates are firm and subject to a late penalty, except when the professor recognizes that there are legitimate and documented exceptional circumstances (eg. illness, death in the family). For each day the assignment is late, the student will lose 1 mark (that is 1% of their final grade). Except for exceptional circumstances such as those noted above, assignments submitted 7 days or more past the due date will not be accepted.

3. Cell Phones and Computers

- In order to ensure a good classroom experience for all, and out of respect for your colleagues and the instructor, please refrain from using cell phones during class time. Ensure that they have been turned off before entering class. Similarly, computers are to be used to for note-taking and class related activities only. Please refrain from surfing the net, chatting, looking at photos and so on, unless we are on a class break. Thank you for your cooperation.

2022-23 BRESCIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE ACADEMIC POLICIES AND REGULATIONS

1. POLICY REGARDING ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION

The complete policy regarding Accommodation for Illness - Undergraduate Students can be found at

https://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_135

Students who have long-term or chronic medical conditions which may impede their ability to complete academic responsibilities should seek Academic Accommodation through Student Accessibility Services

Personal commitments (e.g., vacation flight bookings, work schedule) which conflict with a scheduled test, exam or course requirement are not grounds for academic accommodation.

Students who experience an illness or extenuating circumstance sufficiently severe to temporarily render them unable to meet academic requirements may submit a request for academic consideration through the following routes:

1. For medical absences, submitting a Student Medical Certificate (SMC) signed by a licensed medical or mental health practitioner;
2. For non-medical absences, submitting appropriate documentation (e.g., obituary, police report, accident report, court order, etc.) to their Academic Advisor. Students are encouraged to contact their Academic Advisor to clarify what documentation is acceptable.

Request for Academic Consideration for a Medical Absence

When a student requests academic accommodation (e.g., extension of a deadline, a makeup exam) for work representing 10% or more of the student's overall grade in the course, it is the responsibility of the student to provide acceptable documentation to support a medical or compassionate claim. All such requests for academic accommodation must be made through an Academic Advisor and include supporting documentation.

Academic accommodation for illness will be granted only if the documentation indicates that the onset, duration and severity of the illness are such that the student could not reasonably be expected to complete their academic responsibilities. Minor ailments typically treated by over-the-counter medications will not normally be accommodated.

The following conditions apply for students seeking academic accommodation on medical grounds:

1. Students must submit their Student Medical Certificate (SMC) along with a request for relief specifying the nature of the accommodation being requested no later than two business days after the date specified for resuming responsibilities. An SMC can be downloaded from https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/medicalform.pdf;
2. In cases where there might be an extended absence or serious issue, students should submit their documentation promptly and consult their Academic Advisor for advice during their recovery period;
3. Whenever possible, students who require academic accommodation should provide notification and documentation in advance of due dates, scheduled tests or examinations, and other academic requirements;
4. Students must communicate with their instructors no later than 24 hours after the end of the period covered by the SMC to clarify how they will fulfil the academic expectations they may have missed during the absence;
5. Appropriate academic accommodation will be determined by the Dean's Office/Academic Advisor in consultation with the course instructor(s). Academic accommodation may include extension of deadlines, waiver of attendance requirements, arranging Special Exams (make-ups), re-weighting course requirements, or granting late withdrawal without academic penalty.

2. ACADEMIC CONCERNS

If you feel that you have a medical or personal challenge that is interfering with your work, contact your instructor and Academic Advisor as soon as possible. Problems may then be documented and possible arrangements to assist you can be discussed at the time of occurrence rather than on a retroactive basis. Retroactive requests for academic accommodation on medical or compassionate grounds are not normally considered.

If you think that you are too far behind to catch up or that your work load is not manageable, you should consult your Academic Advisor

(https://brescia.uwo.ca/enrolment_services/academic_advising/book_an_appointment.php). If you consider reducing your workload by dropping one or more courses, this must be done by the appropriate deadlines; please contact your Academic Advisor or see the list of sessional dates in the Academic Calendar

(<https://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/SessionalDates.cfm?SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=>).

You should consult with the course instructor and the Academic Advisor who can help you consider alternatives to dropping one or more courses. Note that dropping a course may affect OSAP eligibility and/or Entrance Scholarship eligibility.

3. ABSENCES

Short Absences: If you miss a class due to a minor illness or other problems, check your course outline for information regarding attendance requirements and make sure you are not missing a test or assignment. Cover any readings and arrange to borrow notes from a classmate. Contact the course instructor if you have any questions.

Please note that for asynchronous online courses, attendance or participation requirements maybe different than for synchronous or in-person courses.

Extended Absences: If you have an extended absence, you should contact the course instructor and an Academic Advisor. Your course instructor and Academic Advisor can discuss ways for you to catch up on missed work, and arrange academic accommodations if appropriate and warranted.

It is important to note that the Academic Dean may refuse permission to write the final examination in a course if the student has failed to maintain satisfactory academic standing throughout the year or for too frequent absence from the class or laboratory (https://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=5&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_64).

4. SCHOLASTIC OFFENCES

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence at: https://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_20.

Students are responsible for understanding the nature of and avoiding the occurrence of plagiarism and other academic offences. Note that such offences include plagiarism, cheating on an examination, submitting false or fraudulent assignments or credentials, impersonating a candidate, or submitting for credit in any course without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course in the University or elsewhere. Students are advised to consult the section on Scholastic Discipline for Undergraduate Students in the Academic Calendar.

If you are in doubt about whether what you are doing is inappropriate or not, consult your instructor, the Academic Dean's Office, or the Registrar. A claim that "you didn't know it was wrong" is not accepted as an excuse.

The penalties for a student guilty of a scholastic offence (including plagiarism) include refusal of a passing grade in the assignment, refusal of a passing grade in the course, suspension from the University, and expulsion from the University.

Plagiarism:

Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt both by using quotation marks where appropriate and by proper referencing such as footnotes or citations. Plagiarism is a major academic offence.

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com.

Computer-marked Tests/exams:

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating. Software currently in use to score computer-marked multiple-choice tests and exams performs a similarity review as part of standard exam analysis.

5. PROCEDURES FOR APPEALING ACADEMIC EVALUATIONS

All appeals of a grade must be directed first to the course instructor. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the course instructor, a written appeal is to be sent to the School Chair. If the response of the Chair is considered unsatisfactory to the student, they may then submit a written appeal to the Office of the Dean. If the student is not satisfied with the decision of the Dean, they may appeal to the Senate Review Board Academic (SRBA), if there are sufficient grounds for the appeal and if the matter falls within the jurisdiction of the SRBA. For information on academic appeals consult your Academic Advisor or see the Student Academic Appeals – Undergraduate in the Academic Calendar https://www.westerncalendar.uwo.ca/PolicyPages.cfm?Command=showCategory&PolicyCategoryID=1&SelectedCalendar=Live&ArchiveID=#Page_14.

Note that final course marks are not official until the Academic Dean has reviewed and signed the final grade report for the course. If course marks deviate from acceptable and appropriate standards, the Academic Dean may require grades to be adjusted to align them with accepted grading practices.

6. PREREQUISITES

Unless you have either the prerequisites for a course or written Special Permission from the Dean to enroll in it, you will be removed from the course and it will be deleted from your record. This decision may not be appealed. You will receive no adjustment to your fees in the event that you are dropped from a course for failing to have the necessary prerequisite(s).

7. SUPPORT

Support Services

The Brescia University College Registrar's website, with a link to Academic Advisors, is at <http://brescia.uwo.ca/academics/registrar-services/>. Students can access supports through Brescia's Student Life Centre (<http://brescia.uwo.ca/life/student-life/>) and Learning Development & Success at Western (<https://www.uwo.ca/sdc/learning/>).

Mental Health and Wellness

Students may experience a range of issues that can cause barriers to your learning, such as increased anxiety, feeling overwhelmed, feeling down or lost, difficulty concentrating and/or lack of motivation. Services are available to assist you with addressing these and other concerns you may be experiencing. You can obtain information about how to obtain help for yourself or others through Health & Wellness at Brescia, https://brescia.uwo.ca/student_life/health_and_wellness/index.php and Health and Wellness at Western, http://uwo.ca/health/mental_wellbeing/index.html.
